ENFORCEMENT OF THE STATE TREATY ON THE PROTECTION OF MINORS IN THE MEDIA (JMSTV)

Announcement dated January 8, 2026

Blocking order for "samidoun.net"

Pursuant to Sections 14 (1) sentence 1, 20 (1) and (4) of the State Treaty on the Protection of Minors in the Media (JMStV) of September 27, 2002 (Bln. GVBl. 2003, p. 69), last amended by Article 1 of the Sixth Media Amendment State Treaty of March 14 to 26, 2025 (Bln. GVBl. 2025, p. 354, 355) in conjunction with Section 109 (1) and (3) of the Media State Treaty (MStV) of April 14/28, 2020 (Bln. GVBl. 2020, p. 698), last amended by Article 1 of the Reform State Treaty of March 14 to 26, 2025 (Bln. GVBl. 2025, p. 361, 362) and in execution of the decision of the Commission for the Protection of Minors in the Media (KJM) of December 10, 2025, the following general ruling

1. Access providers based in the federal states of Berlin and Brandenburg, i.e. all companies that provide commercial access to a public data network and whose activities enable technical mediation and data transmission between a user's terminal device and the Internet, are required to block the domain "samidoun.net" for retrieval in accordance with Sections 14 (1) sentence 1, 20 (1), (4) JMStV in conjunction with § 109 (1) and (3) MStV.
2. The blocking must be implemented by February 5, 2026.
3. The respective access providers fulfill their obligation under No. 1 in particular if they prevent access to the domain "samidoun.net" by means of a DNS block for all networks offered by them.
4. The general ruling shall enter into force on the day after its announcement and shall expire on January 8, 2028.

The general ruling, including its reasoning, can be viewed at the Medienanstalt Berlin-Brandenburg, Kleine Präsidentenstr. 1, 10178 Berlin, during normal business hours. Prior registration is requested.
